

Beamed live from its stunning Cape Town studios on the west coast of Africa, the Espresso show serves up a fresh blend of international culture and lifestyle on a daily basis.

Overview: Similar to the Today Show and GMA formats, this South African daily morning show highlights lifestyle, travel and culture. Topics explored include green living, fashion and beauty advice, comedy, interviews with celebrities, live performances from Africa's top bands, and the latest from the worlds of blogging, gaming and gadgets. Doctors, journalists, chefs, sports fanatics, stylists and techies form the show's presenter pool five days a week, three hours per day.

EXPRESSO's young, multicultural cast brings refreshing new voices to a global stage.

This infectious daily series offers an African perspective to morning television for the first time. Espresso indeed provides U.S. viewers with a new way to "Explore You" every week day.
